

The Economics of Climate Change and Energy Efficiency: Experiences and Opportunities for Business and Policymakers

Moscow, 28 October 2011, 09.00-15.00
at IMEMO, 23 Profsoyuznaya Street

09.00 Registration of participants

09.30 Welcoming address

Session One – Challenges of Climate Diplomacy

09.35 The Role of Climate Diplomacy – From Early Warning to Early Action
(Ambassador Stephan Auer, Deputy Director-General for Globalisation, Energy and Climate Policy, Federal Foreign Office, Germany)

09.40 Climate Diplomacy and Business (Dominic Martin, Director, UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office)

09.45 Russian Climate Policy (Oleg Shamanov, Deputy Director for International Organisations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia)

10.00 Russian Climate Policy – an NGO Perspective (Alexey Kokorin, WWF, Russia)

10.15 Discussion

10.30 Climate Action and Energy Efficiency – Modernising the Economy (Stephan Kohler, Chief Executive, German Energy Agency)

10.45 Coffee break

Session Two – The role of Energy Efficiency

11.00 Russian Energy Efficiency Policy – Achievements and Challenges (Pavel Svistunov, Director, Department of Energy Efficiency, Modernisation and Development of Fuel and Energy Complex, Ministry of Energy of Russia)

Comments by Igor Bashmakov, Executive Director, Centre for Energy Efficiency and Thomas Hendel, Chief Executive, Russian-German Energy Agency

11.30 The Potential of Joint Implementation for Climate and Energy Efficiency (Oleg Pluzhnikov, Dep. Director, Department for State Tariff Regulations, Infrastructure Reforms and Energy Efficiency, Ministry of Economic Development of Russia)

12.00 Discussion

Session Three - Business Solutions for Energy Efficiency and Climate Protection

12.15 Joint Implementation from a Business Perspective (Vsevolod Gavrilov, Head of Department for Energy Saving and Nature Use Projects, Sberbank)

12.30 Business Solutions for Energy Efficiency and Climate Protection – the Example of Gas Flaring (Nikolay Kovarski, Rosneft (req.)/Ingo Ramming, Carbon Trade & Finance) and Heavy Industry in the Ural Region (Vladimir Netschitajlov, UGMK (req.))

13.00 A Holistic Management Approach to Energy Efficiency and Carbon Reduction (Laura Timlin, Carbon Trust, UK)

13.15 The Challenges of Implementing Energy Efficiency Projects (Thomas Hendel, Chief Executive, Russian-German Energy Agency)

13.30 Discussion and summing up

14.00 Buffet reception

15.00 End of conference